MAIN REPORT

City Administrator Doug Zaiz reported the following:

Regulations on pool grates have been changed. The grates last about 10 years and the City is now in compliance.

The ADA

The Community Center parking lot project has begun.

Airport Inn was closed by county due to non-repair of life threatening issues. There were many things they were not taking care of.

A portion of the building at Woodson Hills Shopping Center will be demolished. The last of the tenants are securing other arrangements. The last one (Homestyle Catering) will be out in June.

Alderman Welby asked about a property at Calvert/Harold. The property has been written up.

With nothing further, the meeting adjourned at 6:52pm
