Chief Dominic Orlando presented the information on a purchase of 2 used vehicles from the Missouri Highway Patrol.

The Committee was given pricing, repair records, and detailing pricing.

The total for these 2 vehicles is $67,464.77. The price for two new vehicles that would not be ready until 2024 is $115,000.00.

Alderman Hogan made a motion to spend up to $67, 464.77 for purchase and outfitting of 2 used vehicles from MO Highway Patrol.

The higher priced vehicle, 2020 Silver Ford Interceptor ($29,700) will come from Prop P funds. The second, 2020 Gray Dodge Charger ($23,000) will come from General Fund.

Additionally, they would like to revive the K9 program. Officer Kyle Gregg has gotten $15,000 in donations for a dog and training from non-profit Justin Delivers Hope. He has also secured a ballistic vest for the new dog. They will be bringing two dogs to the City to meet with various employees and speak about the possible dogs the City could choose.

With nothing further, the meeting adjourned at 7:30pm.
